MARINEFORCESRESERVE | FEBRUARY 2014

COMMUNICATOR

BY THE NUMBERS

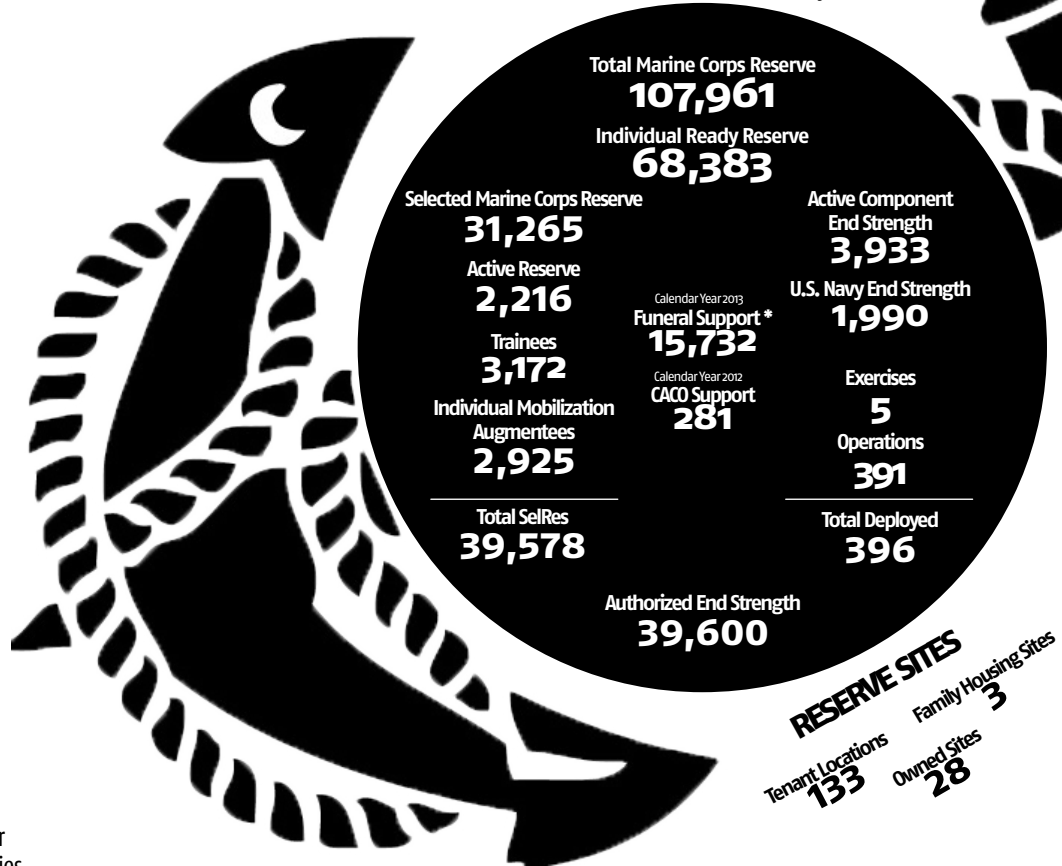

* As of January 2014

LT. GEN. RICHARD P. MILLS

Commander, Marine Forces Reserve & Marine Forces North

Marines not only have a sense of service to their Corps and their families, but to their communities as well. Whether it's Toys for Tots, a color guard or funeral support, the Marines of Marine Forces Reserve are serving communities across the nation with pride and dignity. These selfless efforts demonstrate to the American public the values we hold dear, and serve as a constant reminder that their Marines are standing the watch."

MARFORRES

Community Relations

2013 Year in Review

Supporting America, one community at a time.

MARFORRES participated in more than...

380*

community relations events:

225 color guards

81 volunteer events

34 speaking engagements

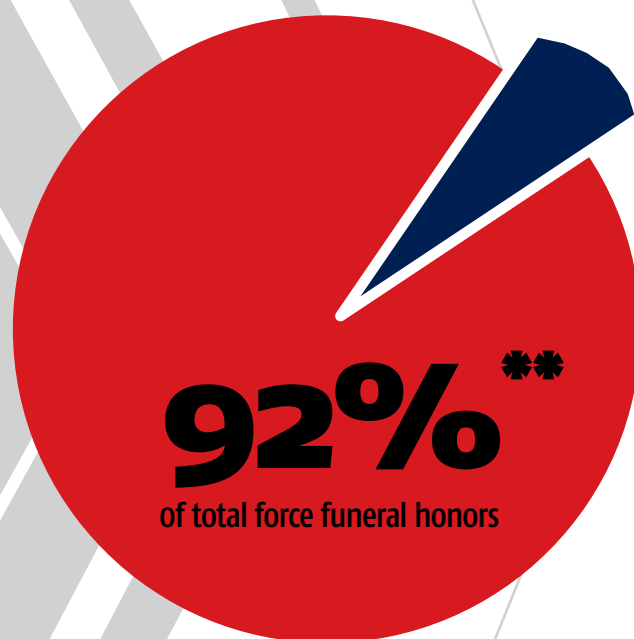

24 static displays

46 ground support events
(award ceremonies, marching units, etc.)

Funeral support

*This number reflects a decrease from 570 community relations events in Calendar Year 2012 due to the effects of sequestration on the conduct of community outreach and the Marine Corps' execution of a partial shutdown of operations due to a lapse in government funding during Calendar Year 2013.

The Inspector-Instructor and Reserve Site Support Staffs, with augmentation from their Reserve Marines, performed 15,732 of 17,075 funeral honors rendered by the Marine Corps during Calendar Year 2013.
